

Provisional Programme: Observatory Venice Summer School on “The Ageing Crisis: A Health Systems Response”

	Sunday 24	Monday 25	Tuesday 26	Wednesday 27	Thursday 28	Friday 29	Saturday 30
9.00-10.30	ARRIVALS & REGISTRATION	Welcome by host Lecture A1: Introduction to the school. This session will introduce the structure and aims for the summer school; the key issues, the teaching outline, the group work, and the social activities (core team).	Feedback Lecture B1: Key targets for promoting healthy ageing and minimizing illness will draw on evidence identifying the key causes of mortality and morbidity where interventions make a real difference (Core team)	Feedback Lecture B4a: Maintaining economic and social integration - will explore the scope for a more integrated approach with employment, education, training and social services (WHO network of age-friendly cities)	Feedback Lecture C2: New technologies for supporting healthy ageing – technologies available or on the horizon and how they can support objectives such as healthy independent living and integrated care (speaker to be arranged)	Feedback Lecture C5: European innovation for healthy ageing. The EU response to ageing, in particular the Active and Healthy Ageing Innovation Partnership (European Commission)	VISIT TO THE DOGE'S PALACE (optional)
10.30-11.00		COFFEE BREAK	COFFEE BREAK	COFFEE BREAK	COFFEE BREAK	COFFEE BREAK
11.00-12.30		Workshop A3: The human level. What does all this mean at a personal level for people? Including cases presented by participants. Professor Knight, EUGMS	Lecture and workshop B2b: the psychology of persuasion. Using evidence from psychology and behavioural science, this session will look at how to transform evidence into real change. (Steve Martin, Influence at work)	Group Work III	Workshop C3: continued.	Policy round-table: bringing it together into an integrated response. With participants from policy perspectives, international organisations and other stakeholders.
12.30-14.00		LUNCH	LUNCH	LUNCH	LUNCH	LUNCH
14.00-15.30	Optional lecture O1: introduction to international organisations and health. A practical description of how the EU works and what it does on health and ageing (NF).	Lecture A4: Context of health system challenges the specific set of issues facing health systems as populations age and their health needs change (RB)	Group Work II	Lecture C1a: Ensuring integrated care- combining different elements of provision (primary, hospital, rehabilitative) to ensure a coherent overall package of care (Dr Andersen-Ranberg, EUGMS) Lecture C1b: Case studies on integrated care in practice.	Lecture C4: Supportive financing mechanisms – how different approaches and structures can support the overall objectives of healthy ageing (OECD)	Group work interactive presentation and discussion	DEPARTURES
15.30-16.00	COFFEE BREAK	COFFEE BREAK	COFFEE BREAK	DEPART to Villa Contarini	COFFEE BREAK	COFFEE BREAK
16.00-16.30	Optional lecture O2: introduction to international organisations and health. Continued practical description, focusing on the WHO and the OECD (NF/MH).	Lecture A5: Wider policy challenges. The implications for European society and economy of demographic ageing (NF)	Lecture B3: Working in partnership – will tackle how health systems can best work with older people and the organizations that represent and support them in effective partnerships (Anne-Sophie Parent, AGE)	GROUP EXCURSION (Villa Contarini) including dinner	Group Work IV	Group work interactive presentation and discussion
16.30-17.00		Group Work I	Departure to Venice (Veneto Office, Venice)			Final discussion – evaluation (core team) Collective review of the week.
17.00-17.30	Official opening <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Observatory • The Veneto Region of Italy • The summer school core team 		Panel discussion on inequalities in healthy ageing
17.30-18.00				Certification ceremony Official closing
18.00-19.00		COCKTAIL RECEPTION (Veneto Office)
19.00-19.30	Welcome Reception Introduction of participants	Free evening
19.30-20.00
20.00	DINNER					FAREWELL DINNER	